

Sam

Age 12, she attends middle school and her birthday is coming up really soon. She lately is tired of people asking her what she wants for her birthday

Jerry

Age 46, works in finance his kids are younger but more middle school age, and he is in charge of getting their Christmas gift, the doesn't want to directly ask them so he Needs a new solution

Greg

Age 26, he just graduated college and is starting his new life in his new apartment. But there's just one thing wrong, he doesn't have and cooking utensils or furniture. How will he let his friends ad family know what to get him.

Tom

Age 17, he's about to be a senior in high school and his friends want to put to gather a Pollyanna for the holidays

Jane

Age 31, she works a nurse in the ER and she is getting ready for her wedding and needs to find a way to tell people what she needs for her new home